

NEVER THE SAME MISSIONS

Quito, Ecuador - June 25 - July 10, 2011

Leader In Training Application

I'm so excited you're interested in being a Leader In Training (LIT) for our 2011 Mission trip to Quito, Ecuador! Are you ready to have your world rocked and make a difference in the lives of younger teens all at the same time? If so, we may be looking for YOU!

Who should apply?

College-age young students with mission trip and leadership experience to work alongside adult leaders on this two-week life-changing adventure and ministry opportunity.

What are the requirements?

You must have been out of high school at least one year by the time of the trip, have at least one international mission trip behind you, strong leadership qualities and experience, a solid spiritual foundation, and a willingness to jump in and get involved in mentoring and encouraging younger teens. Mandatory leader training will be held in Miami two days prior to the student participants.

The 2011 LIT experience- how does it look?

We're looking for young adults who are serious about their faith and being trained to lead in a ministry environment. You'll be stretched to new limits and encouraged to use your particular gifts and talents to make a difference in the lives of the teens you work with. We'll train you, push you, encourage you, and watch you blossom as you step into the exciting role of leadership this trip offers. Are you ready for the challenge?

If you can be flexible and a team player working with other adults in leadership positions, this trip is for you! All of our leaders pay their own way (same as the teens who participate).

Still interested? If so, simply follow the instructions below.

👉 If you haven't read the information packet labeled "For Parents, the Details" make sure you read that before completing this application. (Yes, even if you're not a parent; you need the facts.)

👉 If you haven't spent time in prayer about this trip, stop right now and do so. Don't even think about filling out the application until you're confident God wants you on this trip.

👉 Complete the application below. Include a recent photo with your application.

Return as soon as possible with your $58 application fee to:

Never the Same Missions, C/O Big World Ventures, P.O. Box 703203, Tulsa, OK 74170-3203

Our Expectations

We are looking for spiritually solid college students who are passionate about youth ministry and missions to be godly role models for younger teens as well as take an active leadership role alongside adults on a team of students. As a potential LIT for this mission trip, you're representing Jesus Christ. We would much rather err on the side of being too cautious and conservative than too liberal. So, bluntly put . . . here's what we expect from you:

No sarcasm (Teens are at the point in their development where everything is changing, and a simple zit can hurl them into a crisis. This is not the time to get laughs from sarcasm or clever put-downs. Your role as a godly leader is to provide positive affirmation and encouragement.)

Financial Agreement

If accepted for Never the Same mission trip, I understand that the total cost of the trip is due to Big World Ventures at P.O. Box 703203, Tulsa, OK 74170-3203.

I also understand that I'll need to obtain a passport if I don't already have one. I also understand if folks want to help me financially with this trip, they must make their checks payable to Big World Ventures to receive tax credit. I realize that countries outside of the US may have different tax laws that don't give tax credit for this contribution.

If I end up bringing in more than the trip costs, Big World Ventures will hold any excess money for one year and apply it to another Never the Same Missions trip for me. Donations to Big World Ventures are non-refundable as they are tax deductible. If, however, my contributors DON'T care about receiving a tax donation—if they simply want to contribute money to me personally for the missions trip—they can send those checks directly to me, and I may keep every bit that comes in exceeding my total cost for the trip. BUT my contributors will not receive tax credit.

I understand what the $58 application fee is for and that it is nonrefundable if I'm selected and decide not to participate. I also understand that the trip cost of due to Big World Ventures does not include my round-trip transportation to Miami, my passport, or any applicable departure tax if needed.

Additional costs will be a $45 Departure Tax/Security Fee and a possible fuel surcharge of up to $120.

After January 31, 2011 the base price of trip increases by $100.

I understand the integrity and character involved in accepting donations from people toward this trip. I promise to send a note of gratitude to each person who contributes to my missions venture.
